DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY:

208 Paseo del Pueblo Norte is a single story stuccoed adobe Spanish Pueblo Revival style residential building that has been converted to commercial use. It has a flat parapet and 6- and 8-lite wooden casement window units that are recessed into the build walls and placed in pairs and triplicate. There is a centrally-located partial width raised portal on the east elevation with round posts resting on a knee wall which partially encloses the space. Access to the structure is through central opening in the knee wall and through a 15-lite single leaf French door under the portal. There are two chimneys, one at the northeast corner and the other on south elevation. To the southwest of the building stands a former historic garage which has also been converted to commercial use. It is single story with an undulating parapet and a simple partial-width shed roofed portal at the south end of the east elevation. Windows in the former garage are 3-over-1 wooden double hung and slider units. The front yard of the site is separated from the sidewalk to the east by a low stuccoed block wall. Along the south property line
