DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY:

Building #4 at 412 Paseo del Pueblo Norte [Rooms 140-247] is a two-story stuccoed Contemporary style structure with a flat parapet. Its massing is off-set along the south elevation creating two bays. It is void of windows on the south elevation. The façade is characterized by projecting stucco piers which separate exterior patios on the first floor. The upper level forms a projecting balcony with a wood railing and wooden corbels and lintels. Single leaf solid [metal?] doors provide access to the units in the building. The balcony feature is repeated on the north elevation. Aluminum sliding glass doors provide access to the balconies and patios on this elevation. The east and west elevations each have an open wooden stairwell providing access to the upper level units. The structure is at the northwest corner of the lot and faces a grassy courtyard area to its south. With its simple stylistic modern detailing, the designer of the structure made an effort to be compatible with historic architectural motifs.
