DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY:

116 Dragoon Lane is a single story Vernacular style residential structure with a series of shed rooflines; it appears to have been created through the combining of a series of detached structures as reflected on the 1957 NM DOT aerial photograph. Windows are 8-lite wooden casement units recessed into the building walls in triplicate. As well, there is a five-lite fixed horizontal window unit on the south elevation. There is a recessed corner portal at the southeast corner of the building. Posts on the portal are square with corbels, an exposed lintel and roof beams. The entrance to the residence is under the portal and through a single leaf wooden unit with three vertical windows set at a diagonal. The building sits substantially back from the street. There is a low twig fence at the street and a partially-infilled acequia running parallel to it.
